Ralph Perry Wallace, age 59, died Sunday

Ralph Perry Wallace

FORT WORTH – Ralph Perry Wallace, 59, passed away Sunday, April 27, 2014 surrounded by family and friends.

Memorial service: 11 a.m. Saturday at McKinney Memorial Bible Church in Fort Worth.

Memorials: In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to First Tee (<http://www.thefirstteeforth.org/>), or Cook Children's Hospital of Fort Worth (<http://www.cookchildrens.org/>).

Dr. Wallace was born Sept. 2, 1954 in Sweetwater to Dr. Ralph and Lynn Wallace. Perry graduated from Temple High School in 1971, and Texas A&M University in 1975. Perry continued to medical school at TCOM where he graduated in 1980, and completed his Anesthesia Residency in 1983 at the University of Texas in Houston. Perry earned the distinguished position of Medical Director of OB Anesthesia at John Peter Smith hospital before retiring Jan. 2013, while also being awarded lifetime honorary staff privileges.

Perry enjoyed golf, playing piano and guitar, and traveling with his wife, children and grandchildren. As much renown as he garnered professionally, his greatest joy was his family. He was a loving husband, proud father and faithful friend, accurately referred to by his children as “King of the World, Master of the Universe and Greatest Dad in the Whole Galaxy.”

Survivors: Wife, Christine O'Sullivan Wallace; daughter, Blair Elizabeth Reed and husband, Adam Ryan Reed; sons, Gavin Perry Wallace, Rane Perry Wallace and fiancé, Sara Kardash; daughter Paige Elizabeth Wallace; grandchildren, Grayson Ryan Reed and Bailey Elisabeth Reed; parents, Dr. Ralph and Lynn Wallace; brother, Dr. Brett Wallace and wife, Linda; sisters, Kathleen Wallace, Beth Worley and husband, Joel and Dr. Jennifer Wallace and husband, Paul Bertelli.
